(Revised by Ordinance # 2-97; Adopted: December 11, 1997; Effective: December 11, 1997)

Sec. 202. Warrants for Arrest.

- (2) Date of issuance of the warrant.
- (3) Description of the offense charged.

(c) The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest, but upon request shall, as soon as possible, show it to the defendant.

Sec. 203. Notification of Rights at Time of Arrest.

Upon arrest, the suspect shall be advised immediately of the following rights:

- (1) That he has the right to remain silent.

If the suspect's conduct presents an immediate and credible threat of bodily injury to a law enforcement officer or law enforcement staff at the time that this right is afforded to the suspect, a law enforcement officer may, after taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the suspect may exercise this right, deny the right until immediately after the threat has passed.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 204. Summons in Lieu of Arrest Warrant.

(a) A law enforcement officer or a judge may, in lieu of an arrest warrant, issue a summons commanding the accused to appear before the Chitimacha Tribal Court at a stated time and place and answer to the charge.

(b) The summons shall contain the same information as an arrest warrant, except that it may be signed by a police officer.

(c) The summons shall state that if a defendant fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant for his or her arrest shall be issued.

CHAPTER 3. SEARCHES

Sec. 301. Search Warrant.

(a) A search warrant is a written order, signed by a judge, directing a law enforcement officer to conduct a search and seize property specified in the warrant. A search warrant shall describe the person, property or place to be searched and shall describe the property to be seized.

- (1) stolen, embezzled, contraband or otherwise unlawfully possessed property;
- (2) property which has been, is being, or will be used to commit a criminal offense; or

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 302. Execution and Return of Search Warrant.

Warrants shall be served only by authorized law enforcement officers. Warrants not returned within such time limits shall be void. The warrant shall be served between 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., unless the judge, upon a showing of good cause therefore, inserts a direction that it be served at some other time.

Sec. 303. Search Without a Warrant.

No law enforcement officer shall conduct any search without a valid warrant except:

- (a) When he is making a lawful arrest; or
- (b) With the voluntary consent of the person being searched or the person entitled to possession of property being searched;
- (c) When the search is of a moveable vehicle and the officer has probable cause to believe that it contains contraband, stolen property, or property otherwise unlawfully possessed;
- (d) When the search is justified by a law enforcement officer's reasonable fear that their safety, or that of the public, is in imminent danger; or
- (e) When a search is justified by credible exigent circumstances, including the inevitable destruction of evidence.

The scope of a warrantless search is defined by and limited to the purpose that justified it.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 304. Disposition of Seized Property.

- (a) The officer serving and executing a warrant shall make an inventory of all property seized and a copy of this inventory shall be left with every person from whom property is seized.
- (b) A hearing shall be held by the Chitimacha Tribal Court to determine the disposition of all property seized by the police. Upon satisfactory proof of ownership, the property shall be delivered immediately to the owner, unless the property is contraband or is to be used as evidence in a pending case, or was used in connection with the commission of an unlawful act. Property seized as evidence shall be returned to the owner after final judgment. Property confiscated as contraband or otherwise forfeited to law enforcement or the Chitimacha Tribal Court because it was used in connection with the commission of an unlawful act shall become the property of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana and may be either destroyed, sold at public auction, retained for the purposes of prosecution, retained for the benefit of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana, or otherwise lawfully disposed of as ordered by the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 305. Exclusion of Unlawfully Obtained Evidence.

The Chitimacha Tribal Court may prohibit the introduction or use of any evidence seized in a search conducted in violation of Section 303 and may, in addition, recommend to the chief law enforcement officer of the Chitimacha Reservation what measures should be taken to correct the conduct of the law enforcement officer who conducted the unlawful search.
(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

CHAPTER 4. ARRAIGNMENT AND RELEASE

Sec. 401. Arraignment.

- (a) Arraignment is the bringing of an accused before the Chitimacha Tribal Court to inform him of his rights and of the charge against him, to receive his plea, and to set conditions of pre-trial release as appropriate in accordance with this Code.
- (b) Arraignment shall be held without unnecessary delay after the accused is taken into custody and in no instance shall arraignment be later than seventy-two (72) hours after arrest. The Court may utilize video telecommunications to arraign a defendant.
- (c) Before an accused is required to plead to any criminal charges the Judge shall:
 - (1) Read to the accused, and provide the accused with a copy of, the complaint and determine that the accused understands the complaint and the Section of the Code which he is charged with violating, including the maximum authorized penalty; and

- (2) Advise the accused that he has the right to remain silent, to have a speedy and public trial where he will be confronted with witnesses against him after he has had sufficient time to prepare his defense if he pleads "not guilty," to be tried by a jury if the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment, and to be represented by counsel, at his own expense, before he pleads to the charge; and
- (3) When applicable, ensure that the Chitimacha Tribal Court provides all the protections and procedures provided for under Title III, Chapter 6 and Chapter 8 of the Code.

(d) If the arrest was without a warrant, in order for the accused is to be continued in custody the Judge shall determine during arraignment whether there is probable cause to believe that an offense against tribal law has been committed by the accused.

(e) At arraignment, the Judge shall call upon the accused to plead to the charge and proceed as follows:

- (1) If the accused pleads "not guilty" to the charge, the Judge shall set a trial date and consider conditions for release prior to trial as provided in Section 402.
- (2) If the accused pleads "not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect" to the charge, the Judge shall set a trial date and consider conditions for release prior to trial as provided in Section 402. The Judge may adjudicate a defendant "not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect" without trial if the Prosecutor consents and the Judge makes a finding based on expert testimony that there is a factual basis for the plea. If a Judge accepts such a plea, the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with Chapter 6, Section 601 of Title II.

- (3) If the accused pleads "guilty" to the charge, the Judge shall accept the plea only if the Judge is satisfied that the plea is made voluntarily and the accused understands the consequences of the plea, including the rights he is waiving by the plea. The Judge may then impose sentence or defer sentencing for a reasonable time not to exceed thirty days in order to obtain any information the Judge deems necessary for the imposition of a just sentence. The accused shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard by the Chitimacha Tribal Court prior to sentencing.
- (4) If the accused enters a plea of "no contest" to the charge, the Judge may accept the plea only if the Code does not assign the offense charged an Enhanced Felony penalty. If the Judge accepts such a plea, the Judge may then impose sentence or defer sentencing for a reasonable time not to exceed thirty (30) days in order to obtain any information the Judge deems necessary for the imposition of a just sentence. A sentence imposed upon a plea of no contest is a conviction and may be considered a prior conviction and provide a basis for prosecution or sentencing under laws pertaining to multiple offenses, and shall be a conviction for purposes of laws providing for the granting, suspension, or revocation of licenses to operate motor vehicles.
- (5) If the accused refuses to plead, the Judge shall enter a plea of "not guilty" on his behalf.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017; Revised by Ordinance #02-18; Adopted: April 19, 2018; Effective: April 19, 2018)

Sec. 402. Release Before Final Judgment of Conviction.

- (a) At arraignment, the Judge shall decide whether to release the defendant from custody pending sentencing or trial. As conditions of release, the Judge may, to assure the accused's appearance at all times lawfully required, order any or all of the following:

- (1) that the accused deposit cash or other sufficient collateral, in an amount specified by the Judge;
- (2) that the accused, and/or any other designated person or organization satisfactory to the Judge, execute a written promise to appear or to deliver the accused at all required times;
- (3) reasonable restrictions on the travel, association or place of residence of the accused;
- (4) any other condition reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the accused as required.

(b) Any police officer authorized to do so by the Chitimacha Tribal Court may admit an arrested person to bail pending trial pursuant to a bail schedule and conditions prepared and approved by the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(c) The Chitimacha Tribal Court may revoke release of any defendant and order the defendant committed at any time if it determines that the conditions of release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant or if any conditions of release have been violated.

Sec. 403. Withdrawal of Pleas.

The Chitimacha Tribal Court may, in its discretion, allow a defendant to withdraw a plea of guilty if it appears that the interest of justice and fairness would be served by doing so. The Chitimacha Tribal Court may, in its discretion, allow a defendant to withdraw a plea of not guilty and enter a plea of not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect if it appears that the interest of justice and fairness would be served by doing so.

If it appears in the interest of justice and fairness would be served by doing so, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may, in its discretion, allow a defendant to:

- (a) withdraw a plea of “guilty”; or
- (b) withdraw a plea of “not guilty” and enter a plea of “not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect.”

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

CHAPTER 5. TRIAL PROCEEDINGS.

Sec. 501. Rights of Defendant in Criminal Cases.

No person shall twice be put in jeopardy for the same offense, nor shall he be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself. The accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial, the right to be confronted with witnesses against him, the right to assistance of counsel at his own expense and the right to demand trial by an impartial jury if the offense, or combination of offenses, charges is punishable by imprisonment.

Sec. 502. Limitations on Trial Date.

(a) A defendant must be tried without unnecessary delay after entry of a plea other than guilty.

(b) The following limitations apply to proceedings that involve any defendant who is in the custody of a jail or detention facility:

- (1) On demand of any party after entry of a plea other than guilty, the trial must start within sixty (60) days unless the Chitimacha Tribal Court finds good cause for a later trial date.
- (2) Unless exigent circumstances exist, if trial does not start within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date that a plea other than guilty is entered and the demand is made, the defendant must be released under any nonmonetary conditions that the Chitimacha Tribal Court orders.
- (3) Unless exigent circumstances exist, if trial does not start within one (1) year from the date that a plea other than guilty is entered, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall dismiss the complaint without prejudice upon demand or may dismiss the complaint without prejudice on its own initiative.

(c) The following limitations apply to proceedings that involve a defendant who is not in custody of a jail or detention facility subsequent to the entry of the plea:

- (1) On demand of any party after entry of such plea, the trial must start within eighty (80) days unless the Chitimacha Tribal Court finds good cause for a later trial date.
- (2) Unless exigent circumstances exist, if trial does not start within one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date that a plea other than guilty is entered and the demand is made, the defendant must be released under any nonmonetary conditions the Chitimacha Tribal Court orders.
- (3) Unless exigent circumstances exist, if trial does not start within two (2) years from the date that a plea other than guilty is entered, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall dismiss the complaint without prejudice upon demand or may dismiss the complaint without prejudice on its own initiative.

(d) To determine whether to depart from the time limitations that govern the proceedings under this Section, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall determine whether good cause or exigent circumstances exist upon either party's request or the Chitimacha Tribal Court may determine that good cause or exigent circumstances exist on its own initiative. In any order that finds good cause or the existence of exigent circumstances, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall identify the time limitations that will govern the relevant proceedings.

(e) If a defendant's custody status changes after the defendant makes a demand under this Section, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may in its discretion modify the time limitations that governed the defendant's proceedings upon either party's request or on its own initiative.

(Added by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 503. Issuance of Subpoenas.

(a) Upon request of the defendant or upon the Chitimacha Tribal Court's own initiative, the Court shall issue subpoenas to compel the testimony of witnesses or the production of books, records, documents or other physical evidence relevant to the determination of the case that does not impose an undue burden on the person possessing the evidence. An employee of the Chitimacha Tribal Court may act on behalf of the Court and issue subpoenas which have been signed by the Chief Judge or his/her designee, and which are to be served within the confines of the Chitimacha Reservation.

(b) A subpoena shall bear the signature of the Chief Judge or his/her designee and shall state the name of the Chitimacha Tribal Court, the name of the person or description of the physical evidence to be subpoenaed, the title of the proceeding, and the date, time and place where the witness is to appear or the evidence is to be produced.

(Revised by Ordinance #3-93; Adopted: May 10, 1993; Effective: May 10, 1993; Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 504. Service of Subpoenas.

(a) A subpoena may be served at any place within or without the confines of the Chitimacha Reservation.

(b) A subpoena may be served by any law enforcement officer or other person appointed by the Chitimacha Tribal Court for such purpose. Service of a subpoena shall be made by delivering a copy of it to the person named or by leaving a copy at his usual place of residence or business with any person of suitable age and discretion who also resides or works there.

(c) Proof of service of the subpoena shall be filed with the Chitimacha Tribal Court by noting on the back of a copy of the subpoena the date, time and place that it was served and noting the name of the person to whom it was delivered. Proof of service shall be signed by the person who actually served the subpoena.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 505. Failure to Obey Subpoena.

In the absence of a justification satisfactory to the Chitimacha Tribal Court, a person who fails to obey a subpoena may be deemed to be in contempt of court.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 506. Witness Fees.

(a) Each witness answering a subpoena shall be entitled to a fee as set by the Chitimacha

Tribal Court for each day the witness' services are required.

(b) The expenses provided for in this Section shall be paid by the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana upon completion of the trial, but such expenses associated with witnesses called by the defendant may be taxed as costs against the defendant if he is found guilty and in such case a judgment for the costs of witnesses shall be entered against the defendant, provided however that no defendant shall be imprisoned solely because of his inability to pay such costs.

(c) If the Chitimacha Tribal Court finds that a complaint was not filed in good faith, but with a frivolous or malicious intent, it may order the expenditures incurred under this Section, and such order shall constitute a judgment against the complainant.

(Revised by Ordinance # 2-98; Adopted: June 18, 1998; Effective: June 18, 1998; Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 507. Trial Procedure.

(a) The prosecution shall present its case first, followed by the defendant. If rebuttal is required, the prosecution shall proceed first, followed by the defendant. The Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana shall prosecute the charge by presenting the testimony of the law enforcement officer and any other witnesses who have information that support the charge. In presenting such evidence, the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana may employ a tribal official, professional attorney, or other approved spokesperson.

(b) Subject to Subsection (c), all testimony of witnesses shall be given orally under oath in open court and subject to the right of cross-examination. Documentary and tangible evidence shall also be received in open court and available to the defendant. The Chitimacha Tribal Court shall abide by Title IV, Chapter 8 of this Code (Chitimacha Rules of Evidence).

(c) In a proceeding involving an alleged sex crime committed against a minor, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may order that the minor victim's testimony be taken by video recording in a room outside the courtroom. The Chitimacha Tribal Court shall support such an order with findings on the record that the child is unable to testify in open court in the presence of the defendant due to the victim's fear, the substantial likelihood of trauma from testifying, or that a circumstance that arises during the proceeding causes the victim to be unable to continue testifying. Where a victim's testimony is taken under this Subsection, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall ensure that the victim is subject to cross-examination, including by the defendant's attorney, by two-way closed-circuit television, by questionnaire prepared before and after direct examination, or by any other means the Chitimacha Tribal Court deems appropriate. The defendant shall not be in the same room as the victim. The defendant shall be provided with the means to hear the victim's testimony.

(d) The defendant may be found guilty of a lesser offense not necessarily included in the offense charged, without the necessity of having been formally charged with the lesser offense.

(e) The defendant shall be present in court at every stage of the trial, including selection of the jury, return of the verdict, and imposition of the sentence.

(f) The defendant is presumed to be innocent. The prosecution has the burden of proving the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, including the facts that a crime has actually been committed and that the defendant committed it with the requisite intent when intent is an element of the offense.

(g) At the conclusion of the evidence, the prosecution and defendant each in turn shall summarize the proof and make final argument, with the prosecution having the right to speak last.

(h) All records relating to statements or confessions of the defendant or reports of physical, mental, or other scientific tests or examinations relating to or performed on the defendant, when in the possession or control of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana, shall be open to inspection and copying by the defendant.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 508. Trial by Jury Upon Request.

Any person accused of an offense punishable by imprisonment shall not be denied, upon request, a trial by jury of not less than six (6) persons selected at random from a list of eligible jurors prepared each year by the Chitimacha Tribal Court. If the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana's prosecutor informs the Chitimacha Tribal Court at any time prior to trial, either in writing or upon the record in open court, that the imposition of imprisonment will not be sought upon conviction, then upon the Chitimacha Tribal Court's approval, trial shall be before the Court without a jury and the Chitimacha Tribal Court may not thereafter impose a sentence of imprisonment upon conviction of the crime charged.

(Added by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

A person convicted of any other felony-level offense is eligible to serve as a juror if the conviction was issued at least fifteen years prior to the date that their jury summons was issued; and

- (5) is not a member of the Chitimacha Tribal Council, or a judge, officer or employee of the Chitimacha Tribal Court, or an employee of the Chitimacha Human Services Department, or an employee of the Chitimacha Tribal Police Department or reservation jail.

- (b) Eligible juror; special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction. Where the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana exercises special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction against a non-Indian pursuant to Title III, Section 603, any potential juror must meet the eligibility requirements of this Section except for 509(a)(1). In such a case, the juror must be drawn from sources that reflect a fair cross section of the community and do not systematically exclude any distinctive group in the community.

(Added by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 510. Trial Jury – Empaneling Procedures and Powers.

(a) A current roster of at least twenty-five (25) persons who are eligible for jury duty shall be prepared and maintained by the Clerk. Potential eligible jurors may be selected by a variety of sources to ensure that the requirements of exercising jurisdiction under Title III, Chapter 6, Section 603 are met as prescribed in Title III, Chapter 6, Section 605, including but not limited to enrolled members of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana, residents within the Chitimacha Reservation, or full-time or part-time Tribal employees.

(b) Under the supervision of the Clerk, witnessed by at least two (2) other adult persons, a panel of jurors shall be drawn by lot from the jury roster. A trial jury shall consist of six (6) qualified jurors selected in a random fashion from a panel of twelve (12) eligible persons taken from the jury roster, none of whom has an interest in the case, or is related as spouse, parent, brother or sister to any of the parties or their attorneys. If the jury panel is exhausted before a sufficient number of jurors are selected, additional panels shall be drawn by lot from the jury roster until a trial jury is selected.

(c) Upon a showing satisfactory to the Clerk, the following persons, upon their request, may be excluded from the jury roster and jury panels:

- (1) Persons who reside outside of the Chitimacha Reservation and more than fifty (50) miles from the nearest exterior boundary of the Chitimacha Reservation.
- (2) Persons of advanced age, infirmity or illness.
- (3) Persons burdened by such other circumstances or subject to such other demands that jury service would cause extraordinary hardship for them. Such hardship must be substantially greater than would be experienced ordinarily by persons serving as jurors.
- (4) Employees of the United States.

(d) Each member of a designated jury panel shall be served with a summons, signed by the Judge, indicating the date, place and time that he is first to appear for jury service. The notice shall be served by the Clerk of Court, a member of the Chitimacha Tribal Police Department, or any other person who may be designated in writing by the Chitimacha Tribal Court. The notice shall be served not less than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the designated time for initial appearance. After such initial appearance, the times and places for attendance by those persons included on the designated jury panel shall be prescribed by the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(e) A person summoned to serve as a juror who has not been excused pursuant to any provisions of this Code, or by order of Chitimacha Tribal Court, who fails to appear where and when summoned, or who having so appeared absents himself therefrom without the permission of the Court, or who renders himself unfit to commence or continue the duties of a juror, shall be in contempt of court. In addition to the penalties for contempt of court prescribed by this Code, he may be charged by the Chitimacha Tribal Court with any costs incurred by the Court or by any other persons which resulted from such failure to be present or from such misconduct.

(f) Each party may question members of the jury panel for the purpose of selecting a trial jury. In criminal cases, in addition to disqualifying jurors for cause as determined by the Judge, each side shall be entitled to three (3) peremptory challenges without assigning any cause.

Where there is more than one defendant, they must join in a challenge before it can be made unless the Chitimacha Tribal Court, for good cause shown, shall permit otherwise, or shall permit each defendant to exercise two peremptory challenges.

(g) Each member of the jury panel called to service and each juror who serves upon a jury shall be entitled to compensation at a rate determined by the Chitimacha Tribal Court. All payment of compensation shall be supported by the juror attendance logs as verified by the Chitimacha Tribal Court Director. Payment shall be made from available funds on deposit as the jury bond required by the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(h) The Judge shall instruct the jury with regard to the applicable law and the jury shall decide all questions of fact. At the close of evidence, or at such earlier time during the trial as the Judge directs, any party may file with the Judge written instructions on the law which the party requests the Judge to deliver orally to the jury. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to the opposing party. The Judge shall inform each party of his proposed action upon request prior to the arguments to the jury, but the Judge shall deliver his instructions to the jury after closing arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the Judge's charge or any omission unless he makes an objection and presents reasons for the objection before the jury retires to consider its verdict. Opportunity shall be given to make an objection out of the hearing of the jury.

(i) After deliberation in private, the jury shall return to the Judge, in open court, a verdict of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" to each charge for each defendant. A verdict of "Guilty" shall require unanimous vote of the jury.

(b) Content. A motion may be comprised of a notice of motion and a memorandum in support of the motion. At a minimum, the motion must identify the relief the moving party wishes the Chitimacha Tribal Court to consider and the basis for a ruling in the moving party's favor.

(c) Pre-trial motions. The following motions shall be made before trial, unless the accused demonstrates at trial that his rights will be prejudiced if the motion is not considered by the Court:

- (1) Motion to set aside complaint on the grounds that it does not comply with the requirements of Sections 101 to 102; where it is found that the defendant has been charged without probable cause; or upon determination that the Chitimacha Tribal Court has no jurisdiction over the person or offense.
- (2) Motion for a bill of particulars on the ground that the defendant must have facts other than those in the complaint in order to prepare a defense.
- (3) Motion for a change in trial judge on the ground that there cannot be an impartial trial by reason of a bias, prejudice, or conflict pertaining to the presiding judge.
- (4) Motion to suppress evidence that has been obtained in an unlawful manner.

(d) Timing. Subsection (d)(1) shall govern when motions must be submitted unless the Chitimacha Tribal Court issues an order pursuant to Subsection (d)(2), in which case the Court's order shall govern.

- (1) Upon notice of motion, the moving party shall secure a hearing date from the Chitimacha Tribal Court. The moving party's motion shall be filed with the Court no later than sixty (60) days prior to the hearing date. The nonmoving party may file a response no later than thirty (30) days prior to the hearing date. The moving party may file a reply no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing date.

- (2) The Chitimacha Tribal Court, in its discretion, may issue a scheduling order to govern the submission of motions at any time, provided that the scheduling order offers the parties a reasonable opportunity to prepare the relevant submissions.

(e) Rulings on Motions. The Chitimacha Tribal Court shall either grant or deny any motion made to it and have the order entered in the record of the case along with the reasons for the ruling. If a motion is decided against a defendant, the trial shall proceed as if no motion were made. - (4) Exculpatory information. Material or information in the prosecutor's possession that tends to negate or reduce the defendant's guilt.
- (5) Evidence related to aggravated sentence. Evidence the prosecutor may rely on in seeking an enhanced or elevated sentence, including the conviction record of a defendant.

(b) Defense's disclosures. Subject to Subsection (e), the defendant shall, at the prosecutor's request and either within fourteen days (14) of the defendant's arraignment or forty-two days (42) prior to the trial date, whichever comes first, make the following disclosures to the prosecutor:

- (5) Notice of defense. Notice in writing of any defense, other than a plea of not guilty, that defendant intends to assert.

As soon as practicable, the prosecutor must then inform the defendant of the names and addresses of the witnesses the prosecutor intends to call at trial to rebut the testimony of any of the defendant's alibi witnesses.

(c) Continuing duty to disclose.

- (1) All material and information to which a party is entitled must be disclosed in time to afford the other party the opportunity to make beneficial use of it.
- (2) If, after compliance with any discovery rules or orders, a party discovers additional material, information, or witnesses subject to disclosure, that party must promptly notify the other party of what it has discovered.
- (3) Each party has a continuing duty of disclosure before and during trial.

- (2) On the prosecutor's motion, the Chitimacha Tribal Court at any time before trial may order the defendant to submit to reasonable physical or medical inspection not already subject to disclosure under Subsection (b), provided that the prosecutor make a showing that the inspection requested will materially aid in determining whether the defendant committed the crime alleged. - (2) The information concerning witnesses and other persons described in Subsection (a)(1) is not subject to disclosure if the prosecutor files a written certificate with the Chitimacha Tribal Court that to do so may endanger the integrity of a continuing investigation or subject witnesses or other persons to physical harm or coercion. Non-disclosure under this rule must not extend beyond the time the witnesses or persons are sworn to testify at the trial.

CHAPTER 6. SENTENCING.

Sec. 601. Sentences.

Any person who has been convicted of an offense enumerated in this Code may be sentenced by the Chitimacha Tribal Court to one or a combination of the following penalties:

(a) Imprisonment for a period not to exceed the maximum permitted by the Code provision defining the offense. Unless otherwise prescribed by the Code, imprisonment may be continuous or intermittent. On any sentence of imprisonment, credit shall be given for all time spent in custody in an institution as a result of the charge for which the sentence was imposed. Imprisonment may include commitment to an appropriate institution or program either on or off the Chitimacha Reservation, for care, treatment, evaluation, or rehabilitation of the offender. Anyone receiving physical custody of a person sentenced by the Court shall be acting solely as an agent of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana and Chitimacha Tribal Court. Jurisdiction over a person sentenced to a program or institution off the Chitimacha Reservation shall be retained by the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana and the Chitimacha Tribal Court exclusively. No placement off the Chitimacha Reservation shall be valid unless first approved in writing by the Chief Judge, and any order of such placement shall specify that the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana and the Chitimacha Tribal Court retain jurisdiction over any person so placed.

(b) A money fine in an amount not to exceed the maximum permitted by the Code provision defining the offense. If the Chitimacha Tribal Court determines that a convicted offender is unable to pay forthwith a money fine assessed under this Section or any costs assessed under Section 506(b) of this Title, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall allow the offender a reasonable period of time to pay the entire sum or allow the offender to make installment payments to the Clerk of the Court at specified intervals until the entire sum is paid. If the offender defaults on such payments the Chitimacha Tribal Court may find the offender in contempt of court and punish the offender accordingly, but no person shall be held in contempt of court where nonpayment is because of indigence. Any convicted offender may, if such person so chooses, elect to serve time in prison at the rate of five ($5) dollars per day to be credited against any fine or costs such person owes.

(c) In addition to or in lieu of the penalties provided above, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may require a convicted offender who has inflicted injury upon the person or property of another to make restitution or compensation to the injured person by means of the surrender of property, payment of money damages, or the performance of any other act, including appropriate work detail, for the benefit of the injured party.

(d) Unless otherwise prescribed by this Code, in its discretion, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may commute or suspend some or all of the sentence imposing a fine or imprisonment, or grant probation, on condition that the convicted person does work for the benefit of the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana. A person unable or unwilling to work may be confined in jail or fined as provided above.

(e) In determining the character and duration of the sentence to be imposed, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall take into consideration the previous conduct, background and characteristics of the defendant, the circumstances under which the offense was committed, whether the offense was malicious or willful, whether the defendant has attempted to make amends, the defendant's financial resources, and the needs of the offender's dependents. Prior to imposing sentence, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the convicted offender to present information to it. The Chitimacha Tribal Court may also request and receive pertinent reports, advice, and recommendations from any other person or agency which may assist the Chitimacha Tribal Court in imposing an appropriate sentence, provided, however, that prior to sentencing the convicted person shall be advised of the content, identity, and source of any such report, advice or recommendation and shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to comment upon or rebut it. The Chitimacha Tribal Court may require, as a condition of its sentence, that the convicted offender undergo available medical, psychiatric or substance abuse treatment, not operate a motor vehicle, or remain within geographic areas designated by the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(f) This subparagraph shall govern the sentencing of a defendant who is found “not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect.” When a verdict of “not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect” is returned for an offense that the Code assigns an Enhanced Felony penalty, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall commit the defendant to a proper state mental institution or to a private mental institution approved by the Court for custody, care, and treatment, unless the defendant and the Prosecutor negotiate an alternative remedy approved by the Chitimacha Tribal Court. When a defendant is found “not guilty by reason of mental illness or defect” for any other case, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall remand the defendant to the parish jail, a proper state mental institution, or to a private mental institution approved by the Chitimacha Tribal Court and shall promptly hold a contradictory hearing at which the defendant shall have the burden of proof, to determine whether the he or she can be discharged or can be release on probation, without danger to others or himself or herself. If the Chitimacha Tribal Court determines that the defendant cannot be released without danger to others or himself or herself, it shall order the defendant committed to a proper state mental institution or to a private mental institution approved by the Chitimacha Tribal Court for custody, care, and treatment. If the Chitimacha Tribal Court determines that the defendant can be discharged or released on probation without danger to others or himself or herself, the Court shall either order the defendant’s discharge, or order the defendant’s release on probation, subject to specified conditions for a fixed or an indeterminate period. The Chitimacha Tribal Court shall assign written findings of fact and conclusions of law; however, the assignment of reasons shall not delay implementation of judgment.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 602. Waiver of Minimum Mandatory Sentences.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if the commission of an offense specifies a penalty with a minimum term of imprisonment or a minimum fine, or that the sentence shall be served without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence, the Court, upon conviction, in sentencing the offender shall impose the sentence as provided by the

Code for that offense, unless one of the following occurs:

- (1) If the defendant pled guilty pursuant to a negotiated plea agreement accepted by the Chitimacha Tribal Court, which specifies that the sentence shall be served with benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence or specifies a reduced fine or term of imprisonment;
- (2) In cases resulting in trial, the prosecution and the defendant, with the Chitimacha Tribal Court's approval, entered into a post-conviction agreement, which specifies that the sentence shall be served with benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence or specifies a reduced fine or term of imprisonment.

(b) If such agreements are entered into between the prosecution and the defendant, the Chitimacha Tribal Court, at sentencing, shall not impose a lesser term of imprisonment, lesser fine, or lesser period of sentence served without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence than that expressly provided for under the terms of the plea or post-conviction agreement.

(c) The provisions of this Section do not apply to the following crimes: Sections 316 (Pornography Involving a Juvenile), 317 (Computer-Aided Solicitation of a Minor), 323 (Aggravated Assault – Public Official), or 610(b)(1) (Enhanced Felony Domestic Violence) of Title III of the Code.

(Added by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 603. Probation.

(a) Granting probation. After conviction for an offense, the offender may be placed on probation under such terms and conditions as the Chitimacha Tribal Court deems just, including a signed pledge by the offender of good conduct for the duration of the sentence and requiring the offender to pay for or contribute toward the costs associated with monitoring and enforcing the terms and conditions of probation. The Chitimacha Tribal Court shall take into consideration any prior criminal record of the offender, the offender's background, characteristics, financial condition and any other circumstances helpful in determining the advisability of probation.

(b) Violation of conditions of probation. If any convicted offender violates the terms and conditions of probation, the Chitimacha Tribal Court may, after giving such person notice and the opportunity for a hearing in open court, revoke or alter the terms of probation, and may, as a penalty for violation of the probation, impose an additional fine or imprisonment.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 604. Forfeiture of Weapons.

Any convicted offender owning and using a firearm, or any sharp or dangerous weapon, in the commission of an offense shall forfeit such weapon to the Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana as part of the sentence. Upon order of the Chitimacha Tribal Court, such weapon shall be destroyed, retained by the Chitimacha Tribal Police Department, or sold at public sale after appropriate public notice, pursuant to the direction of the Chitimacha Tribal Court.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)

Sec. 605. Notification of Right to Appeal.

Following conviction, except upon a plea of guilty, the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall inform the convicted offender that he has a right to appeal. Upon the convicted offender's request, the Clerk of the Chitimacha Tribal Court shall prepare and file a Notice of Appeal on behalf of the convicted offender. The convicted offender, or the Clerk of the Chitimacha Tribal Court filing on his behalf, must file the Notice of Appeal within fifteen (15) working days of the judgment.

(Revised by Ordinance #02-17; Adopted: January 12, 2017; Effective: February 1, 2017)
