- ◆ The Chitimacha Health and Human Services Department will be hosting its monthly Diabetes Support Group with Margo Price on Wednesday, July 26th, during breakfast in the RiverCane dining room. This group is open to the community involving those with Diabetes and those caring for or having relatives with Diabetes.
- ◆ Please accept our apologies, but we will not have the Remember When Photo Session this month, we are hoping to have it again in the near future.
- ◆ Tribal Elders, if you are not a regular diner, please call us at least 24 hours in advance to let us know that you will be coming in to dine or pick up your meal. Also, if you need to cancel, please let us know at least 24 hours in advance as well.

Attention All Elders!!!

Somethin' Sassy Salon & Boutique is offering manicure and pedicure services to elders who are unable to go to the salon, the Mani/Pedicurist will come to you to have it done.

Please contact Salon & Boutique owner, Marla Kidder at (337) 552-8298 to find out the fee and book your appointment.

Males are welcomed to book an appoint as well.

Attention Tribal Elders!!!

I would like for you to help me choose our next dinner outing! I plan on taking you all out early next month (maybe the first or second week in August.) I've had several great suggestions and so I would like to know what majority of you would prefer. Please fill out this survey and return to me no later than Friday, July 21, 2017 at 12:00 p.m. That way I can have time to make the reservation. If you would like to know the menu options on any of the named restaurants below, please contact me. ~ Kim Cook.

The St. John Restaurant in St. Martinville

Dupuy's Restaurant in Abbeville

Tokyo Fish in Morgan City (Hibachi)

Yellowbowl in Jeanerette

Hook & Boil in Broussard

Café Delphine at Cypress Bayou Casino
